

WE'RE A PEOPLE-FOCUSED SECURITY FIRM

Since its founding in 1997, Platinum Security's goal has always been to put the customer first. Now, over 26 years later, Platinum Security's reputation for providing the best customer service in the business is not only richly deserved, but a proven fact.

The professional manner and reliability of our security officers and the dedication of our management staff all contribute to Platinum Security's reputation for exceeding client expectations.

With clients ranging from Fortune 500 companies to homeowners' associations, Platinum Security maintains a diverse client base. Platinum Security's quality management team is dedicated to meeting its clients' needs, no matter what their type or size (from multi-national corporations to individuals), by designing specifically tailored security programs.

QUALITY SECURITY SERVICE

Originally founded in 1997 in Los Angeles, California, Platinum Security is comprised of over 800 dedicated professionals providing quality security service that exceeds our customer's expectations in the private security industry.

Our management staff and field supervisors are comprised of current and former law enforcement officers and former loss prevention executives who provide quality security services that surpasses our client's expectations. With dedicated professionals and state of the art equipment, Platinum Security provides unsurpassed service for communities, government facilities and businesses.

Platinum Security's employee turnover rate is the best in the industry. We strive to employ well-trained security officers seeking longevity in their careers. We are strong believers of growing from within our organization. We have officers that have been with the company since it started in the late 1990's that are still part of our organization, along with the management staff and branch managers that have been growing with us in several markets for almost ten years. Platinum Security is built on a philosophy that emphasizes quality security services.

All our clients at Platinum Security have a direct relationship with our management team and trusted officers trained specifically for their security needs. These ties ensure success and are one of the reasons Platinum Security has long lasting relationships and impeccable client references.
