

REGISTRATION IS NOW OPEN!!

The 14th Annual SSTAGE Promising Practices Conference

WHEN: January 13, 2021

FORMAT: Virtual Hybrid Model of Live and Pre-Recorded Sessions. This year, the virtual platform will deliver 20+ live and pre-recorded presentations!

STARTING LINEUP: Georgia's MTSS Rockstars and National Presenters Navigating Continuous System and School Improvement to Champion Student Success

This year has presented challenges to educators, students and families across the nation as we continuously seek ways to provide effective instruction, maintain student engagement and advocate for the social and emotional wellness of our students and staff. During this year's conference, our presenters will address the critical needs of our teachers, students and administrators.

Participants will be able to explore and engage in discussions about what is working well in other schools; a resource toolbox of practical approaches for effective instructional strategies and assessment tools; and strategies for strengthening and renewing the spirit, energy, and enthusiasm of our most essential weapon for maximum impact, OUR TEACHERS!

SSTAGE Cancellation Policy

To cancel participation for an event, SSTAGE must receive written notice (email jwhitehead@gael.org) seven calendar days prior to the scheduled workshop/conference. An administrative fee of $25.00 will be charged for cancellations. Requests for a refund must be received in writing at least seven calendar days prior to the start of the conference and must be addressed to jwhitehead@gael.org. SSTAGE encourages participants to find a substitute. Replacements will be welcome, and there will be no charge to transfer a registration to a colleague for the event. Advance notice of replacements is preferred. If an individual registers and does not attend the event, he/she will be marked as a "no show" and the full conference fees shall apply. Registrants are responsible for payment. Refunds will not be made for "no shows". Refunds and reimbursements will not be transferable to other workshops or conferences. In the event of inclement weather which may impede or prevent conference attendance, or which may give cause to fully cancel the conference, a credit will be provided to the registrant or school/system. Refunds will not be made for conference cancellations due to severe weather or weather events which may cause the conference to cancel. SSTAGE is not responsible for United States Postal Service mail or electronic mail failures.
